Ambassador Lettie Botha

Dear reader,

What an amazing day with all the girls at Sip & Paint. 7 June ‘25

Big thank you to Carin our events ambassador for the Sip & Paint and all the hard word that you put into this event.

Thank you so much for Claire Jones Professional Hair Artistry for using their beautiful salon.

To Tilana thank you for teaching us your amazing skills to do a painting, it was so much fun and laughter. Will do that again.

We need to do this again next year and remember to book your spot don't wait. It's a bonding between friends again just to talk and have some fun.

Just loved every minute of it.

My artwork, I really want to do this again.

Have fun live your life to the fullest..
Till next time

Lettie

Looking into the life of Mr. T

By: Lettie Botha

Tlotliso Thaane better known as Mr T gives us a brief regarding how he got to be where he is in life currently. The bubbly man known as Mr T to friends and family has always been passionate about how business and economics works which led him in starting a small business of his own selling sweets and biscuits during his high school days. In 2013 Mr. T started hiring other learners at school to sell for him as they received an income every Friday and that's when he got a vision to create employment for other people. At the time his end goal was to buy flashy clothes he desired and developed a sense of style that made him a trend setter amongst his peers. Mr. T continued to grow his small business by selling Take 5's and Ice pops at church and that's where his passion for entrepreneurship began.
Mr. T was also passionate about sharing his knowledge with others as he was known to be one of the smart learners at school as he received awards of being the best learner in math lit for both grade 11 and 12. He started tutoring other learners in his spare time at Nkgopoleng high school in Free State, Pele ya Pele ,Lekeoa Shandu in sharpville and at Lesedi youth development during and after his matric year. Mr. T was doing a great job at tutoring that he got selected to provide extra classes at class (2017) and in 2018 he was

Secondary School Improvement programs (SSIP Gov) hosted by the the government in schools around the Vaal area and received wages for that. He furthered his studies at north west university Vanderbijlpark campus studying Economics and International trade where he lead in his business class (2017) and in 2018 he was as a S.I which is a personal assistant for the business management module leading him to have an interest in attending entrepreneurship programs around campus.

Joining a group called YEBO (Young entrepreneurship business organization) on campus for a business idea called the student watch which was a watch that will be used as a student card with a chip called an RFID (radio frequency identification device) to access campus through their smart watches instead of using student cards as well as many other trades through that very watch. Mr T also won a cash prize from the Vaal chamber of commerce in a business competition for the invention of an body-brella which is an umbrella that can cover your whole body and specifically used for people who go fishing and camping, car guards, petrol station attendants and students who walk to scholl to protect their smart phones and laptops. The idea was so great that Mr.T received a mentor and sponsorship to create and build his business idea into reality.

He emphasizes that he made the most of his university days as he also joined Enactus where he was elected as human resource manager in 2018. He also started working for Fundi in 2019 on campus to which he used to help students get Study loans and bursaries. He finally graduated in 2020 then started studying for his educational passion as he registered for his PGCE(post graduate certificate in education) in business and economics. Mr T completed his practical's at Hoerskool Carel de wet where the principal hired him before he even graduated and later encouraged him to apply for an Got hired at Die anker Skool as and assistant teacher until he received his results for the Teaching degree in 2022 (March) which he used to apply for a SGB post at Die Anker Skool as a qualified teacher as there were no post available. The SGB hired him untill he was offered a permanent post at Die Anker Skool as a full time Teacher (Dec 2022). In 2023.

Mr.T was a permanent teacher at Die Ankker skool teaching subjects like L.O, Maths, English and Natural Sciences. Die Anker skool is a school for learners with special educational needs (LSEN) which allowed Mnr.T to explore the psychology studies that was a part of his PGCE degree where he learned more about different psychological disorders. Even though Mr T believes in business and working for yourself as a person he therefore felt that it is also important to work hard in getting funds for his businesses instead of requesting fundings to which he started saving for his businesses he also adds that every future CEO needs to work under someone to understand how it feels to be in that position of being an employee as opposed to the employer.
Having being motivated by his parent's interest in the property business seeing how they built student accommodations for college and university students. Tlotliso Thaane decided to do the same by joining the family business as he observed how his parents started so small with only six rooms in their backyard to owning four huge properties in the Vaal area which taught him that being a businessman requires hard work, patience, consistency and determination

Looking into the life of Mr. T - part 2

All this motivation lead him to buying his first property that he revamped into a student accommodation in 2024 and currently host VUT students. His parents named the accommodation business Tlotliso Trading named after their only son, and they taught him a valuable lesson that whatever they built is for my Tlotliso children and whatever he built will be for his great grand children to keep the family legacy growing and prospering.

Mr T also talks about his interest in logistics and how he dreams of owning trucks one day but before he reaches there, he claims he will start patiently one step at the time. Tlotliso presented a brilliant business idea to his parents to purchase a big boy motorbike, which was purchased in 2024. The motorbike is currently working under checkers 60 sixty delivery services. Tlotliso hired his unemployed cousin and took him for training so that he can be a competent checkers delivery man.

Mr. T believes that the first scooter will purchase a fleet of scooters and further purchase a fleet of taxis and later purchase a fleet of trucks with patience and consistency to fulfill his dreams of being a logistics manager/ Truck Owner. He also believes it's great to motivate people around you to show them it is all possible regardless of your background or situation.

Tlotliso is also known for his religious belief and his other objective is to ensure that people know and understand how great God is as it was not by his own might or strength or knowledge but by the spirit, grace and mercy of the Lord to achieve everything he has achieved, as God has blessed him with wisdom to choose right from wrong. he further says "Everything I have achieved I have prayed for and the lord has provided" he encourages everyone to do the same, he further claims that he has conversations with God regarding what his plans are and everything he wrote on his vision board has come to pass for God has plans to prosper us and not to harm us, plans for the future we hope for, and Mr. T hopes for a bright future filled with love, peace, joy, wealth and health.

With Love Mr T.

Hulde aan 'n lewende persoon. Vertel ons aan wie jy hulde wil bring en hoekom?

Ek wil graag die met julle deel dit was 'n paar dekeds gelede. Die dame wat die geskryf het is Renè de Beer van Vaalahari Nuus aan Charmaine.(myself)

Ons wil almal graag iewers in ons lewens hulde bring aan iemand- jou pa, jou skoolhoof, 'n beste vriendin, 'n staatsleier of enigiemand. Die jamerte daarvan is dat hulle gewoonlik dan dood is. Ek treur nog ses jaar na haar dood, oor my ma. Maa hulde beteken niks vir haar nie. Dis net vir myself.

Daarom wil ek vandag, in hierdie skrywe, hulde bring aan 'n vrou wat ongelooflik onbaatsugtige dinge doen in my besigheid, soms sonder dat sy raakgesien word vir die dinge wat sy doen. Charmaine onlosmaaklik deel van Vaalahari Nuus. Ek kan haar nie genoeg betaal nie, ek sal haar nooit kan vervang nie. Ek sal haar nooit genoeg prys nie - en ek kan haar nie genoeg blomme koop om vir haar dankie te sê vir wat sy doen nie.

Sy moet soms tegelyketyd mense oplei, onderhoude met hulle voer en nog haar "werk" ook doen.

Sy moet funksies bywoon, foto's neem en as skakelbeampte van die koerant optree. Soms doen sy ver meer as wat van haar gevra word, alles ter wille van hierdie oulike koerant, waarin sy so glo dat sy my soms skaam maak! Toe ek haar aangestel het, was dit as "advertensie-verteenwoordiger". Ek dink sy is alles - in een, baie meer as daardie "job description".

Ek gaan nie eendag blomme op Charmaine se graf sit nie. Ek gaan nooit kyk hoe lyk haar grafsteen nie. Ek wil haar nou blomme gee, en haar nou bedank vir wat sy doen vir Vaalahari Nuus.

Die ander dames - Alida, Joy en Tersia - julle is vir my net so dierbaar, julle werk net so hard.

Maar Charmaine het hierdie koerant "aangeneem" as haar eie. Ek het dit nog nooit ervaar dat iemand soveel van haarself kan gee vir iets wat nie altyd in rand en sent bepaal kan word nie.

Haar lojaliteit aan hierdie koerant is onmeetbaar. Ek wil my verstout om te sê- Charmaine- IS Vaalahari Nuus. Haar inisiatief is ook soms onverstaanbaar - sy saal ons op met 'n verfprojek groter as onsself - 'n banier van " epidermiese proporsies" soos Oubaas van Sewendelaan sou sê. Haar hele gesin kom saam om te help verf (en raad gee) en tussen die harde werk lag ons onself in 'n koma in. Maar ons werk ons Saterdag om, en ons mis die Springbokke se game, want dit is in belang van Vaalahari Nuus! Dis hoever Charmaine dit vat vir hierdie koerant!

Sy is nie die terug sit - enkyk- tipe nie. Sy is daar waar die tekkie die teer slaan. Sy is die mier wat tein keer sy eie gewig kan dra, sy is die miskruier wat aanhou en aanhou ten koste van haarself.

So, sonder dat ek wil hê haar kop moet te groot swel, wil ek haar net "formeel" bedank vir haar aandeel in die sukses van Vaalahari Nuus. Sonder Charmaine, sou daar NIE 'N Vaalahari Nuus wees nie. Sy is ons "lelie van die velde" om weer vir Oubaas aan te haal.

Dankie Charmaine jy is die vlinder in ons naam. (Jaar 2003)
